FRANCE - Phonecard commemorating Tour de France '99.

Polynésie française

2 juillet 1999 : Philex France 99 à Paris.

150^e anniversaire du timbre poste français, feuille de 10, séparés par une vignette centrale sans valeur et un bloc.

Nous retrouvons le même sujet sur le timbre du 18 novembre 1992 (n° 421 du catalogue Yvert & Tellier) que nous connaissons déjà, sorti à l'occasion du centenaire des E.O.F. (Etablissements Français de l'Océanie).

Reproduction d'une carte postale ancienne (la poste de Papeete et le cercle de Bougainville).

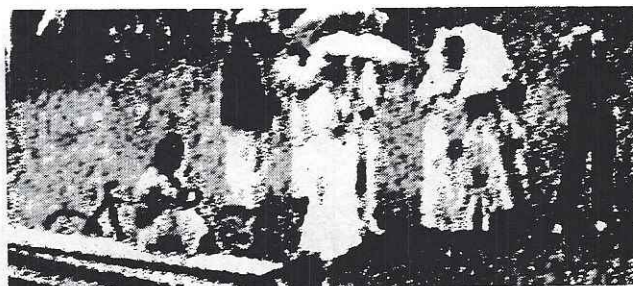

Une bicyclette au premier plan.

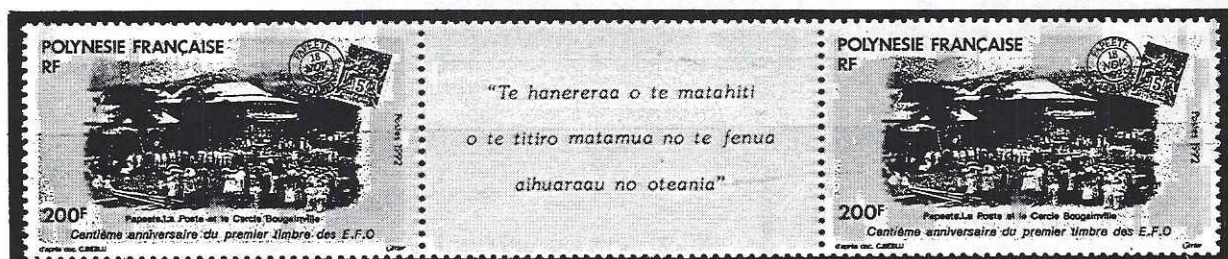

Timbre (180 CFP) 36x48, en feuille de 10, séparés par une vignette centrale sans valeur et un bloc Philex France (500 CFP).

FRENCH POLYNESIA - 02.07.99

150th Anniversary of French Post Office. The stamps reuse the photo of the arrival of mail at Cercle Bougainville Post Office, Papeete. This was used on the November '92 issue which commemorated the Centenary of French Oceanic Settlements. This, as the enlargement shows, has a bicycle in the foreground. The central label is an advertisement for Philex France '99.

Pour la 1ère fois, un australien s'impose à Paris sur les Champs Élysées.

For the 1st time, an Australian emerged in Paris on the Champs Élysées.

Prepared by Michel Lesueur

Bicycle and philately lovers have of course immediately made the link between this stamp and the professional cyclist team

- In 1898, The Dutch Bank Rabobank was born.
- Since 1996 The Rabobank has sponsored a professional cyclist team carrying its colors
- On May 8th 1998, the Netherlands issued a stamp commemorating the Centenary of this Bank

Les amoureux du cyclisme et de la philatélie auront certainement tout de suite fait le rapprochement entre ce timbre et l'équipe cycliste professionnelle.

- 1898 : La coopérative bancaire Néerlandaise Rabobank voyait le jour
- Depuis 1996, Rabobank sponsorise une équipe cycliste professionnelle portant ses couleurs
- Le 8 mai 1998, les Pays-Bas émettaient un timbre postal commémorant le centenaire de cet établissement bancaire

PRIVATE POSTAL SERVICES IN ITALY DURING 1945

by Franco Pastormerio

translated by Peter Rogers for inclusion in the July 1999 issue of "The Cinderella Philatelist"

Editors Note. Readers are also reminded that we previously printed an article on this subject by G.J.Oettle in BS20A (Spring 1996) and BS20B (Summer 1996). Also, as Peter Rogers kindly passed his original colour photocopies to Brian Sole to send to me, I have tried to improve the reproduction of some items, but, in doing so, I have used them full size, not as printed in the original article. This article improves our knowledge of these services and, thanks to Peter & Brian, we now have photocopied documentation of items we previously only knew existed.

At the beginning of 1945, because of the difficult connections due to the war which divided Italy in two, the Post Office authorised some private companies to carry the mail between some of the cities in Northern Italy. This happened during the period of the Socialist Italian Republic (RSI). The mail had to be properly stamped and cancelled by the originating post office and delivered to the receiving office for local express delivery, paid for by the normal Italian stamps. The actual carrier charge was at the discretion of the courier company.

So there came into being the Northern Italy Couriers, which connected the various cities in Northern Italy by means of bicycle couriers, by bus or by other private means. The best known was CORALIT (CORrieri ALta ITalia) which connected Piemonte to Lombardy as far as the Veneto - Trieste, Rovigo and Ferrara. The authorisation for CORALIT came from the Ministry of Transport of the RSI by means of a letter dated 20 February 1945; it was confirmed on 21 May 1945, one month after the Liberation, by the Postal Ministry of the Italian Kingdom.

Initially, a CORALIT label (in black on red in Fig 1), with the amount paid, was affixed to the back of the cover, additional to normal postage.

Later, in March 1945, two imperforate stamps were issued with a face value of 14 and 28L (Fig 2). In April 1945 a set of 5 imperforate stamps appeared with face values of 14, 28, 56, 70 and 140L - representing a considerable amount of money at that time. The three lower values depict the Lion of St Mark and the higher values a bicycle wheel over Northern Italy (Fig 3). (Editor's note: For interest, I am including a copy of a 'used' 14L stamp.) A third set, with the same face values, appeared in June 1945; all five values show a cyclist across the map of Northern Italy (Fig 4).

In the same period, the SEIS (Northern Italy Express Company) was formed. It carried out the same activity as CORALIT and issued a set of 5 perforated stamps depicting a cyclist and a small mountain town. The stamps were inscribed "SEIS 1945" and were issued with the face values of 10, 15, 20, 25 and 30L (Fig 5). These stamps are not known on covers but some rare letters exist with the rubber handstamp used by SEIS on the reverse (Fig 6).

Another service known during 1945 is the one carried out by SABE (Barbera Publisher Joint Stock Company), which provided a rapid delivery service between Florence and Venezia Giulia. It issued 3 well-produced imperforate stamps depicting a chariot pulled by four horses (Fig 7). The face values are 5, 10 and 50L. In a few cases, the letters show a stamp with the caption "CITO-CITO" and other Latin expressions. Its service began in December 1945 and ceased at the beginning of 1946.

During the early part of 1945 an organisation named CAPI COURIERS carried out the same type of service as the other companies. It used a violet rubber handstamp (Fig 8) on the reverse of envelopes. Its incremental charges were 14, 28, 56, 70 and 140L.

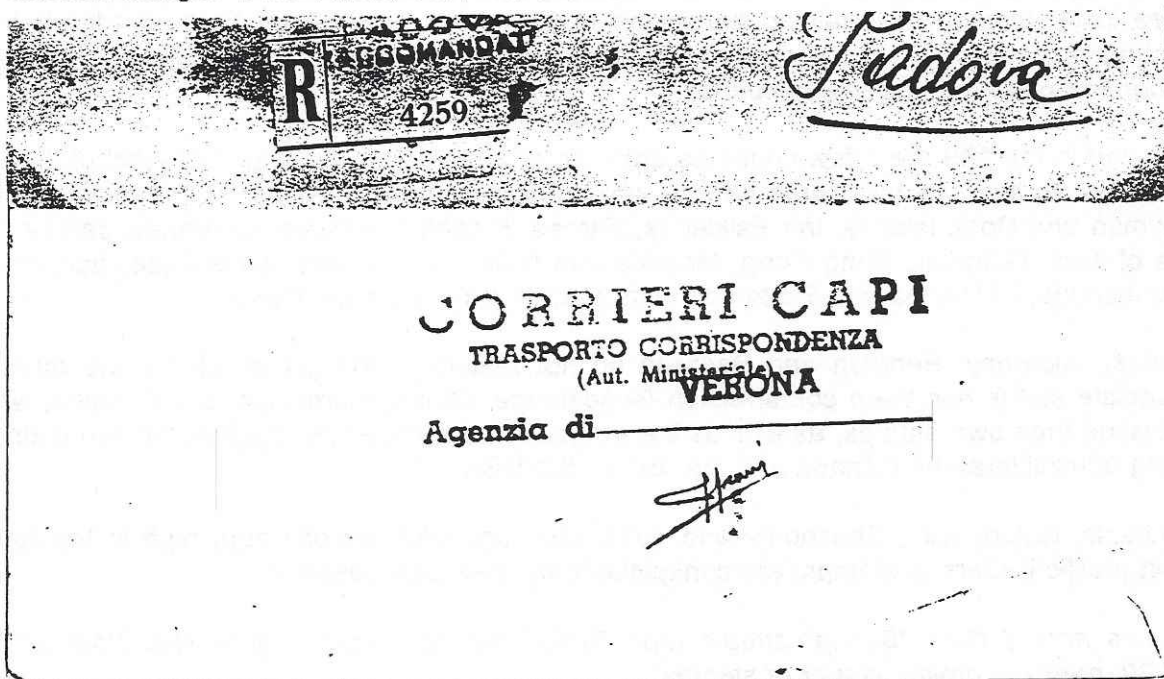

Fig.8

Some other companies delivered the mail privately. One of the best known was the SEAP service which carried the mail from Milan to Mantua and vice versa. It cancelled the stamps on letters and postcards with a green oval handstamp inscribed "SEAP" (Fig 9).

UNIVERSAL POSTAL UNION MEMBERSHIP

from G.S.M. August 1999

In this, the 125th anniversary year of the Universal Postal Union, James Mackay has taken a look at the membership list and concludes that it is salutary to realise which countries belong to the UPU and which have not so far been admitted to membership.

The latest membership list, published in July 1998, details 189 member countries from Afghanistan to Zimbabwe. In addition, Andorra, the Marshall Islands, Micronesia and Paulau were in the course of obtaining admission to the Union, while East Timor (under Indonesian occupation), enjoyed 'special status'. (Editor's note: This of course must change now that East Timor has been granted independence.)

Included in the 189 are a few countries enjoying associate membership in respect of their parent countries. In this category come several which issue their own stamps, like Anguilla, Aruba, the Cayman and Cook Islands, the Falklands, Faroes, French Polynesia, Guernsey, Jersey and the Isle of Man, Gibraltar, Hong Kong, Mayotte and Niue. Conversely, while Ascension enjoys full membership, St Helena and Tristan da Cunha have only associate status.

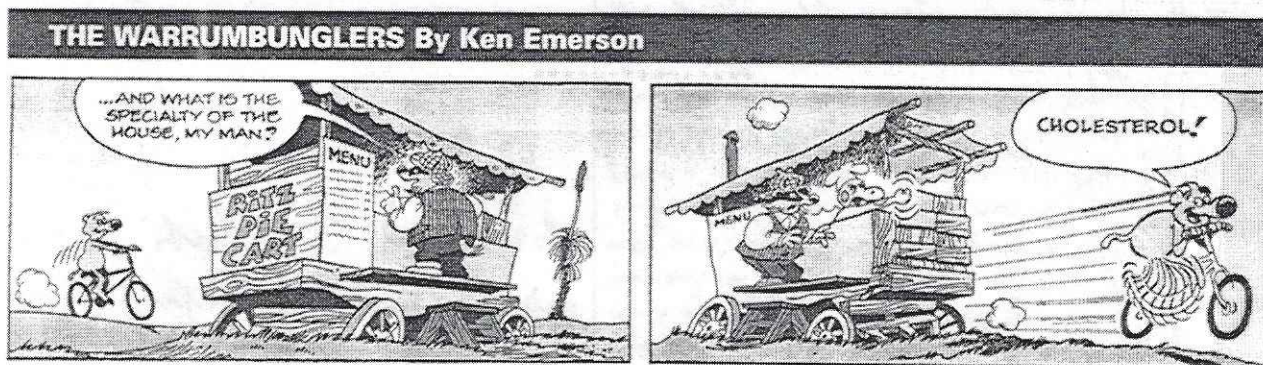

Aitutaki, Alderney, Penrhyn and Barbuda do not feature in the list at all. On the other hand, associate status has been conferred on Guadeloupe, Guam, Martinique and Reunion, which do not issue their own stamps, as well as the Magdalen Islands, which qualifies on two counts, part being administered by Canada and the rest by the USA.

Abkhazia, Batum (sic), Chechenia and Tuva, four 'countries' which figure high in the list of the most prolific issuers of stamps, are conspicuous by their total absence.

Editor's note: I think "Batum" should read "BHUTAN" as Batum only existed from 1/12/18 to 7/7/20, hardly a 'prolific' issuer of stamps.

Whilst on the subject of the UPU, there was a letter to the editor in the August GSM which read: "Rule Breakers - In view of the various comments I have read on the subject of UPU requirements in the matter of stamp design - amongst them that the currency must be stated and the value shown in Roman numerals - can you please explain why (or how) Great Britain is permitted to produce and circulate stamps bearing only legends such as '1st', and '2nd' and 'E', also why France is permitted to use a stamp with no currency or value whatsoever displayed."

The magazine's answer was: "Such rules seem destined to be ignored by the world's postal administration I'm afraid ... as are the UPU recommendations regarding excessive stamp issuers!"

Unidentified find from Greg McMahon. Does anyone know anything about the Republic of KARAKALPAKIA and this issue?

- * Dr. Vojtech Jankovič at the end of his article entitled "Obtuse Connections - My findings", which appeared in BS26 asked if anyone could help with information on the company "Macchine Singer Percucire", Ron Sant has sent the following information.

Singer Macchine per Curire is Singer Sewing Machines, which was an American company which became world famous and produced and sold high quality sewing machines. Singer bicycles were made by William Singer, an Englishman, who originally started working as a skilled craftsman with James Starley at the Coventry Machinists Co. Ltd. They had originally been the Coventry Sewing Machine Company and changed their name after they started to produce bicycles in 1869. In the late 1870's William Singer started making bicycles on his own, also in Coventry, which continued until in the early 1900's they started making motor tricycles and then light cars. Their cycle production continued until the first World War, 1914, but I have no reference of them carrying on afterwards.

- * Included with this magazine is a 1999 Royal Mail Special Stamp Calendar. Brian Sole managed to obtain a quantity of these and, as they provide a good reproduction of the UK Millennium Travellers' Tales Cycling Stamp, he thought members might like one.
- * Brian has also advised that Frank Pegley's collection is to be auctioned by Phillips in London in December. He hopes to persuade Phillips to send details to each club member.

CYCLO-PHILATELIE

1 9 9 5 - 1 9 9 9

Piet Hein Hilarides has produced a supplement to his Bicycle Stamps Catalogue.

The catalogue was reviewed in BS19A (pages 20, 21 & 22).

The supplement is similar to his catalogue in that the size is A5 (145mm x 210mm).

Piet Hein is selling his catalogue update for $US1 by seamount and $US2 by airmail to US members; members from elsewhere should contact him direct for pricing details.

- * British Thematic Association - changes to senior officers following their AGM. Brian Sole, who completed his four-year term of office as Chairman, has been succeeded by John Hayward. Other new officers are: President: Margaret Morris; Vice-Chairman: Christine Earle; Treasurer: Tony Farmer.
- * One of our esteemed members seems to have gone missing! I refer to Past President and Editor Douglas Marchant. He does not respond to anyone's letters. Can anyone throw any light on this perplexing problem?
- * A considerable amount of material used in this edition was the result of two people's efforts: 1. Member Michel Lesueur and 2. Juan Franco Crespo, a Spanish Stamp Journalist, who sent me a letter requesting information and an assortment of material. The same request was sent to the Editor/Secretary of various Topical Collecting Associations. I wish to thank them both for the material supplied.
- * WIPA 2000 (Vienna 30 May - 4 June 2000) - Further to the information on page 25 of BS28, it is interesting to note that the Austrian Post Office has so far issued 2 stamps promoting WIPA 2000. In May '97 and November '98 these featured respectively a 9 kreuzer stamp of 1850 and a postman on a tricycle and a 1929 2s. stamp and a post van. Austria was the 11th country to issue stamps, the first featuring the double-headed eagle and the imperial crown. Vienna has staged successful international stamp exhibitions in 1881, 1933, 1965 and 1981; WIPA 2000 will no doubt uphold the tradition.

* LSC - a new philatelic term - Pitt Island in the Chatham Islands in New Zealand is recognised as the first inhabited place to witness the new dawn on the 1st January 2000. Those standing on Hakepa will greet the first light. To celebrate the passing over from one millennium to the next, New Zealand Post is issuing a 1999 'Last Sunset' cover, featuring a round Kiwi stamp with a gold sun overprinted in the selvedge. So, having become accustomed to FDC (first day cover), we now have an LSC (last sunset cover)!
