BELGIUM - WORLD CYCLING CHAMPIONSHIPS CYCLO-CROSS and ROAD RACING : ZOLDER

Belgium has issued two stamps to commemorate the above Championships. Jacques Matthys has contributed a huge quantity of material for this issue; this contained an introduction to the stamps' designer, Nora Theys, and signed drafts of preliminary and final ideas. Nora also signed an FDC which shows two different postmarks, both dated 19.01.02. The difference is that, to please everyone in this bilingual country, the Belgium Philatelic Bureau always issues two postmarks - one inscribed "BRUSSEL BRUXELLES", the other "BRUXELLES BRUSSEL".

To further confuse the issue, the stamps and FDC's were obtainable on Saturday 19th January at an exclusive preliminary sales day at King Baudouin Stadium in Brussels, the official first-day of issue in all post offices being Monday 21st January. FDC's bearing both postmarks are available. The logo on the postmarks for the 19th and 21st are also different; the 19th is headed "Sport" and shows a tennis racquet on its side, whilst the 21st shows the tennis racquet in a vertical position. Therefore, FDC's are available with four different postmarks.

NORA THEYS

Artist, painter and art photographer, for the first time, submitted designs for stamps - her submission was accepted. Her outlook is incredible and intriguing, never before have we seen a cycling stamp with a cyclist anxiously looking back at his opponent. The second stamp shows a rider splashed with mud, making a fist - a new trend in victory salutes (as you know, using the V-sign, with both arms raised, can result in a fine or disqualification due to the danger of causing a fall in a sprint finish).

The artist has said that she got a lot of experience from her father, Piet Theys, one of Belgium's most famous sports journalists in broadcasting and later in television, author of many books and stories of the Tour de France.

We hope other countries will commission Nora to design sports stamps that collectors will enjoy, due to her new trendy and original outlook.

Included are some preliminary drafts: the cyclo-cross rider in the first drafts was looking straight ahead and finally ended up looking to the right. Also shown are two pencil drafts showing a cyclist and a tennis player, for Nora also designed tennis stamps as Belgium is very proud of its two young female players, Kin Clijsters and Justine Henin.
